Valley Green

More Than Green and White
Green and white. These two colors are a symbol of Passaic Valley, and they have been so for years. Green and white represent Passaic Valley's sports, clubs, and students, but this year the Passaic Valley yearbook staff wanted to make it clear that the students of P.V. are "more than green and white." Instead we are a rainbow of different personalities, styles, interests, and more. Therefore, the Passaic Valley yearbook staff set out on a mission to make the 1997-98 yearbook the most colorful book yet. We believe that this year's theme is a unique and fun way to represent Passaic Valley, and we hope that it keeps this school year's memories colorful for many years to come.

Sincerely,
The Valley Green editors and staff

Junior Cotillion, December 5, 1996
Each year the yearbook is dedicated to someone to show appreciation, and gratitude for the help and guidance they have given to the class over the previous four years. The class of 1998 would like to dedicate the yearbook to Mrs. Mulcahy, an involved teacher, class advisor, and friend to many at Passaic Valley. When the class of '98 entered the halls of Passaic Valley in September 1994, two teachers undertook the responsibility of advising this class. Unfortunately, in the same year, one of the advisors left PV, and Mrs. Mulcahy took sole responsibility for the class of '98.

Her enduring support and energy has made the class a success. With the help of Mrs. Mulcahy, the class of '98 has reached the monetary goal they set out freshman year. Along with successful fund raisers the class of '98 has also enjoyed many memorable formal events. Mrs. Mulcahy single handedly orchestrated the Sophomore Social and the Junior Cotillion, which the class will always remember.

The class of 1998 would like to thank Mrs. Mulcahy for all of the time she has devoted to the class, and all the energy she has put into the events that have made the class of '98 a success. Even after graduation, the class of '98 will remember Mrs. Mulcahy's enthusiasm, thoughtfulness, and most of all her devotion. Thank you Mrs. Mulcahy.
"Old and Grey", well, not exactly. The faculty of Passaic Valley, for the most part, is far from it. However, regardless of the current staff we still hold in our minds a picture of teachers as elderly adults hopelessly removed from their teenage years. This is impossible though. The teachers deal with the students everyday, and therefore can't escape the trials and tribulations of adolescence. Teachers participate in such activities as dressing up for Halloween, the Student vs. Faculty Volleyball Game, and even the occasional cafeteria study break, and through these events the teachers have become both mentors and friends.

While we have all felt that teachers couldn't possibly understand the hectic schedule we endure and still pile on endless papers and reports, we have also received numerous extensions on these papers as well as seeing the very same teachers in the stands of the gym and the seats of the auditorium. Eventually, we even come to realize that our teachers aren't ancient beings retreating home each night thrilled with the prospect of hundreds of illegible papers to grade, but simply adults who have graced us with their guidance, their wisdom, and far more often than we give them credit for, their understanding.
Mr. Janish has dedicated twenty-seven years to the Passaic Valley family. Through the years, he has taught Construction, Graphics, and was the head of the CIE/School to Work program. Mr. Janish and his wife plan to continue their work in the billing business. As of now, he lives in Clifton and is happily raising his five-year-old son. He is remembered by peers as an honest, trustworthy, and brave friend. His students hold him in the highest regard. They describe him as a funny, ecstatic teacher who combined his great sense of humor with his dedication to a quality education. He is also described as being well organized, easy to talk to, and a person who would help his students in or out of school. He is a friend to all and we wish him the best in his retirement and in his future endeavors.
Dear Members of the Class of 1998:

The world around us is changing at a rapid pace and growing smaller by the day. It is my hope that your experiences at Passaic Valley Regional High School will prepare you to compete in the world of tomorrow.

The demands of society are reaching the highest level of expectation, and it is my hope that we have done our part to assist you as you enter the field of competition.

Congratulations!

Respectfully,

Undoubtedly in the months and years to come we will look over the yearbook many times, and most likely this section, "True Colors" will be the one we look over the most in the time to come. More than a trite phrase this title truly conveys that which the seniors will most want to look back upon, each other. With graduation inevitably comes separation, but the seniors will not leave the halls of Passaic Valley unchanged or unremembering. While college will certainly increase the distance between us we will forever be linked by the bond of common experiences. Together we have weathered the experiences of high school, and together we will leave Passaic Valley to venture on, separate in location, but never in heart. While many of us have formed our own groups, finding comfort in familiarity, we have also always been aware of those around us, and the profound effect they had on our lives. There were the athletes, and the band kids, the Girls' Show participants, and the drama club, the Top 10 Most Involved and those who raced out of the parking lot at 2:33, but most of all there was the class. Each student brought something unique and together we wove the tapestry that will forever be remembered as the Class of 1998. "And I'll see your true colors shining through, I see your true colors and that's why I love you, so don't be afraid to let them show, your true colors, true colors are beautiful, like a rainbow."
Guiding Light

The Class of 1998

would like to thank Mr. Semcer, Mrs. Mahr, Mr. Pantale, Mrs. Tichio, and Mr. Marion for all their help, hard work, and dedication throughout the 1997-1998 school year. Everything that our senior year at Passaic Valley entailed would not have been possible without you.
Dear Class of 1998,

As this year comes to a close, it is difficult to fathom how fast the four years have gone. I feel that the Class of '98 is truly MY CLASS, for when you began your voyage at Passaic Valley High School, I too started mine. Through these years I have had the pleasure of getting acquainted with you as class advisor, teacher, coach, and friend. Of course it will be sad to see you leave, but I know bigger and better opportunities await you.

Now it is time to wish you the best as you leave the safe harbor of PVHS and enter the first phase of your adult lives. Your families, teachers, and community members, have done their respective parts in preparing you to set sail. Choose your direction carefully. Although the waters may be rough at times, do not be afraid to set out to sea. Steer straight until you reach your next port, and do not hesitate to dock and ask for help along the way. It is important that you know where it is you are headed and admit when you are not that sure.

I will miss the Class of '98: the sometimes less than successful fundraiser, the mostly successful social events, and above all, the very successful individuals of this fine group I am glad to have been a part of. You will always remain in my heart as my first class at PVHS. Never be a stranger to PV because, as with all things, each one of you in a small or large way has helped to make this experience what it is. Together we made history at Passaic Valley High School.

As you depart to become a Marine, an Employee, a Wildcat, or a Blue Devil, remember you will always be a Hornet.

Bon Voyage!
Mrs. Mulcahy

Memories — How long until we rise from the feet of our demigods and brush the soil from our bloomed knees? How long until we learn that the dreams sacrificed on the altar of uncertainty will haunt us always as we drown in the deadly sea of regret?
How long until we realize that the view from a star, even if it's falling, is far better than that from the highest peak? How long until we realize that in order to say I love you one must first learn how to say the I?

Children of the Eighties

We are the children of the Eighties. We are not the first “lost generation”, nor today's lost generation; in fact, we think we know just where we stand - or are discovering it as we speak. We are the ones who played with Lego Building Blocks when they were just building blocks and gave Malibu Barbie haircuts with safety scissors that never really cut.

We collected Garbage Pail Kids and Cabbage Patch Kids, and Rainbow Brite and Care Bears and My Little Ponies and Hot Wheels and He-Man and She-Ra, and other action figures. Big Wheels and bicycles with streamers were the way to go, and sidewalk chalk was all you needed to build a city. Imagination was the key. It made the Ewok tree house big enough for you to be Luke and the kitchen table and an old sheet dark enough to be a tent in the forest. Your world was the backyard, and it was all you needed. With your pink portable tape player, Debbie Gibson sang back up to you and everyone wanted a skirt like the Material Girl and a glove like Michael Jackson's. Today, we are the ones who sing along with Bruce Springsteen and the Bangles perfectly and have no idea why. We recite lines with the Ghostbusters and still look to the Goonies for a great adventure. We flip through T.V. stations and stop at the A-Team and Knight Rider and Fame, and laugh with the Cosby show and Family Ties and Punky Brewster, and “What you talkin’ bout Willis?” We hold strong affections for The Muppets and The Gummy Bears, and why did they take The Smurfs off the air? After school specials were only about cigarettes and step-families, The Polka Dot Door was nothing like Barney, and aren’t the Power Rangers just Voltron reincarnated?

We are the ones who still read Nancy Drew and The Hardy Boys, and The Bobsey Twins, Beverly Cleary and Judy Blume, Richard Scary and The Electric Company. Friendship bracelets were ties you couldn’t break, and friendship pins went on shoes - preferably hightop Velcro Reebok’s - and pegged jeans were in, as were Units belts and layered socks, and jean jackets and jams and charm necklaces and side pony tails and just tails. Rave was a girl’s best friend; braces with colored rubber bands made you cool. The back door was always open and Mom served only Red Kool-Aid to the neighborhood kids - never drank New Coke. Entertainment was cheap and lasted for hours. All you needed to be a princess was high heels and an apron; the Sit’n’Spin always made you dizzy, but never made you stop; Pogoballs were dangerous weapons and Chinese Jump Ropes never failed to trip someone. In your Underoos you were Wonder Woman or Spider Man or R2D2 and in your tree house you were king.

In the Eighties, nothing was wrong. Did you know the President was shot? Star Wars was not only a movie. Did you ever play in a bomb shelter? Did you see the Challenger explode or feed the homeless man? We forgot Vietnam and watched Tiananman’s Square on CNN, and bought pieces of the Berlin Wall at the store. AIDS was not the number one killer in the United States. We didn’t start the fire, Billy Joel. In the Eighties, we redefined the American Dream, and those years defined us. We are the generation in between strife and facing strife, and not turning our backs. The Eighties may have made us idealistic, but it’s that idealism that will push us on to our children - the first children of the twenty-first century. Never forget: we are the children of the Eighties.

"Going for the Gold" is certainly an appropriate title for the Sports Section of the yearbook. Each day the fields of Passaic Valley are littered with athletes running, throwing, catching, shooting, stretching, and working towards the glory of victory, and away from the agony of defeat (bad cliches). These athletes range from the cross country runners who can be seen running seven miles a day, to the participants in Girls' Show who thrill audiences yearly with their dancing, cheering, and fabulous exercise routines.

However, those who participate in sports can tell you that they gain much more than a good workout and and the thrill of winning. Many students see in sports the offer of camaraderie and the chance of meeting new people who share their interests both on and off the field. Teammates quickly evolve into friends and coaches often double as confidants and mentors. Athletics also offer the students a chance to gain valuable skills ranging from teamwork to responsibility; sports also teach valuable lessons about achieving goals, and the importance of dedication. Most of all however, students find ways of expressing themselves through their talents, be it soccer, cheering, or football, sports at Passaic Valley have something to offer everyone, even it it's only washing the towels.
"What do you think about when you're running a 3.1 mile Cross-Country race?"

"... destroying the competition," - Sophomore Brian Miller

"All my RAP, baby!" - Sophomore Nick Digenova

"God, I hate rap ... and Nick," - Senior Ryan Urgo

"I'm in the wrong sport," - Junior Kristin Scarnaty

"I can't wait for this race to end," - Senior Aisha Alexander

"... picking off every runner in front of me one by one," - Junior Mike Gambatese
Cross-Country

This year's 1997 Boy's Cross-Country Team completed one of its most successful seasons in 30 years. Finishing the season with a dual meet record of 16-1, the Hornets were one of the top contenders for the county title, ultimately finishing in third place. Losing much to graduation, this year's team was one of the youngest in years. Nevertheless, their dedication overcame the odds and has now put them in position for future success. Key returning runners were Senior Ryan Urgo, Junior Andres Cordero, and Sophomores Brian Miller, Chris King, and Nick Digenova. With the additions of Junior Mike Rodriguez and Justin Sanzari, the team left a major impact on the running world.

Complimenting the boys' team, the girls' team, also very young, finished a very impressive season. Led by Senior Captain Aisha Alexander and Junior Captain Kristin Scarnaty, the Lady Hornets proved to be very competitive this year. With some new additions, including Freshman Sara Nowen, the team had a successful post-season, finishing fifth overall in the county.

Both teams appeared to be very well-prepared and were eager to perform this year. "Going for the gold" all season long, the 1997 Cross-Country Team completed a season to remember.
The 1997-98 gymnastics season ended on a strong note. Senior Captain Katherine Russo, with her skill and experience, and Junior Captain Elizabeth Styles led the team through another successful season. Other teams will have to settle for silver when they go up against these girls of gold. Next season looks promising with returning talents Elizabeth Styles, Stefanie Wilk, Erica Phifer, Nicole Koster, Nicole Morino, Julie Molinari, and Cathy Salamone.
Girls' Volleyball: Red Hot Fire

In the 1997 Girls' Volleyball season, excellence and a fiery attitude were the best ways to describe the team. They relied on intense preseason workouts to improve their skills and form a strong bond within the team. Led by Coach Bill Humes and Senior/Captain Michelle Vicari the Lady Hornets were able to transform an inexperienced and timid team into a dominating one. With the combination of the team's unstoppable serves and defensive play the girls were able to open the season with a 3rd place finish in the Bloomfield Tournament. The outcome of this day set the precedent for the remaining season as a team with a whole lot of heart and talent.

The team consisted of one Senior, Michelle Vicari, who provided the vocal leadership on the court to maintain a team focus. Being both setter and back position spiker she helped keep momentum on the Hornet's side. The rest of the team was made up of nine underclassmen. Junior Carrie VanWay was a dominating hitter, both front and back row, and contributed added points with a deadly serve. Also Carrie's unfailing blocks at the net left the Hornet with a competitive edge. Wendy Cook and Katie Gourley, also Juniors, were noted for their consistent defensive play back row. Another setter, Krista Voorhis, was quick to the ball and passed out excellent sets for the front row hitters. Also starting was Sophomore Tara Trovato who had developed into one of the team's more powerful hitters and back row players. Her strength and quickness got the easy kill against the opponent. Also giving essential contributions to this Lady Hornet team were Juniors Ken Gessler and Alison Kildow and Sophomores Jerilyn Pami and Jenny Balady. All delivered necessary strong back row play.

Overall the '97 season resulted in a 4th place county seed and an 11th place ranking in the state. With the loss of only one Senior the Lady Hornets will surely have another winning season under the leadership of nine underclassmen.

Who recently made the states for the first time in five years? The Hornet Boys' Soccer Team. Led by a new coach, Mr. Fitzgerald, these boys achieved more than was expected of them. Placing second in both the division and county with a record of 11-9, they certainly made their mark on PV sports.

The team was led by Seniors Frank Lepore (center mid-fielder) and Donald Platvoet (stopper). Along with the leadership and guidance from these two, the rest of the team pulled together and began to form into a powerful union.

Helping the team to its own personal victory were Seniors Marco Grieco, Seby Boscinero, Dan DiBlasio, Jack Donnaruma, and John Baldino. A star in the rising is Junior Carlos Ortiz who helped immensely in mid-field. Hopefully next year Boys' Hornet Soccer will be just as successful as this year.

The 1997 Girls' Soccer team had an impressive season under the watchful eye of new head coach Gina Vintalore. The girls improved in both mental and physical abilities of the game. By getting a jump start on things, the girls began their season in early August. After grueling days of double sessions, the season had finally arrived. The buzz for the young Lady Hornets was to achieve high goals for a still growing and ever maturing program. Although not evident in their record of 4-12-0, The Hive made vast improvements against opposing teams while earning the respect of coaches around the league. With a strong coaching staff returning, and numerous skilled players, the Lady Hornets look to the future with hope and high expectations.
Coach Cheryl Hergert led P.V. Field Hockey to believe in themselves this year. Although these fighting Hornets didn’t have a winning season, they had a blast out on the field. Captains, Nicole Crosman, Sabrina Lionti, and Sarah Behmani kept the State of Mind alive and encouraged the team to play to their best. The team learned more skills this year and is planning on improving their record next year.

It was a rebuilding year for the girls tennis team who finished their season with an (8-12-1) record. The girls were determined and dedicated to have a successful season. Their hard work paid off in the county tournament where the second doubles team, sophomore Charissa Bascik and senior Anna Arriaga, qualified for the semifinals. The young team is coached by Vu Phan and led by junior captain Jaclyn Janesk, and seniors Anna Arriaga and Erin Couglin. Coach Phan and the girls are working hard to make next season a “golden” one!

This year’s 1997 Hornets football team ended the season with a 6-3 record winning their last three games. This year’s team relied heavily on its senior leadership and a very young but talented junior class. Under the guidance of head coach Chet Parlavecchio, the team had its 4th straight winning season.

This year’s team was very different from past teams, the 97 team relied heavily on its defense which successfully shut out 3 teams and allowed only 54 points in 9 games. The Hornets look to have a bright future with 7 starters returning on offense and 6 returning on defense.

1997 U.S. Scholastic Marching Band Championships

The Passaic Valley Marching Band has come a long way from last year. The music for this year's show is from the Broadway Play Jesus Christ Superstar. The songs used are "Simon Zealotes", "King Herod", "Gethsemane", and the main attraction "Superstar". This year the band and guard competed in many competitions, which they came out of with excellent standings. They hosted their second competition at Passaic Valley which went very well. The Marching Band and Color Guard ended their exciting season at the CMBC Giant Stadium championships where all their hard work paid off. Then, in the spring, the band and guard will be taking a trip to Canada to attend the Canadian Music Festival's.
“S-P-I—R-I-T. Spirit. Let’s Hear It.” Not only could you hear spirit, but you could see and feel the spirit generated by the 1997 Hornet Cheerleaders. The Varsity Cheerleaders, led by their Senior Captains Rachel Loforese and Tamarra Bacik, entertained the crowds this football season and cheered the team to a 6-3 record. The girls’ hard work and dedication began this summer at the UCA Cheering Camp. There, they placed second in both the cheer and sideline competitions. The squad not only took home a spirit stick, symbolic of their dedication, but many memories of the 3 am fire alarm, running through sprinklers, “bonding” with the other squads, and the endless cheer classes with Curtis and Alan. The football season saw the cheerleaders out in the pouring rain more times than not. They endured the heat in Montville and freezing temperatures of their last game against Wayne Valley. After an enjoyable football season, the cheerleaders took home the 3rd place trophy from the West Milford Cheering Competition. The fond memories and laughter shared by the 1997 Hornet Varsity Cheerleaders will last these girls a lifetime.
The 1997-98 P.V. wrestling team had a rebuilding year. When the graduating seniors remained in the coaches' minds that would not live up to expectations of past seasons. However with the up and coming underclassmen, their doubts were proven wrong. Freshman brothers Chris and Craig Wright had an outstanding first year at P.V. Wrestling fans have a lot to look forward to in these two prospects.

Another winter season has passed for the Passaic Valley Winter Track Team. Despite being a young and inexperienced team, the Hornets proved to be an improving group of athletes. With only three girls, The Lady Hornets placed an amazing fifth in the Northern Hills Conference Championships. There were many individual accomplishments made. Senior Captain Aisha Alexander received first team all Passaic County, first team all Northern Hills Conference for the 1200m and 3200m and broke the 600, 1000, 1500, 1600, 1 mile, 3000 and 3200m records and advanced to the State Meet of Champions. Desiree Alexander received second team all County and first team all NHC for the shot put and broke the shot put record with a 35'6" throw. Yasmeen Shuieb received second team all County for the high jump and Myesha Woodley received honorable mention all County. Although she was unable to compete due to an injury Senior Captain Jennifer Quinn was always around to support the team. All in all the young Hornets team, with many promising freshmen, proved to be an improving group.

1997-98 Indoor Track Team

The 1997 Passaic Valley Bowling Team is looking to forego last year's accomplishments. The Hornets came in third in the conference in 1997, and also finished third in the counties. They made a surprising run in the States coming in second in the sectionals and thirtieth overall in the finals.

The Bowling Team only lost one varsity bowler to graduation, and has a strong nucleus of returning bowlers. The varsity team consists of Jeff Giannino, Joe Huber, Brian Mistrette, John Bakalian, Chris Porta, Dan Heinold, Dan Cook, and Jerry Porta.

This year the team is already conference champions, and even though they placed a disappointing sixth in the counties, they are striving to be number one in the state. With the talent of the bowlers and coaching strategies of Mr. Ariola, the Hornets have a promising shot.
Junior Cindi Leece

Vicari, VanWay, Berthold, Scarnaty, Trovato, Nesnay, Leece, Kildow, Balady, Gastula, and McNeil all provided the Lady Hornets the necessary elements to have a successful 1997-98 basketball season. However, the new name to this group was first year coach Gina Vintalore. With her new methods on a more aggressive offense the girls basketball posed a threat to any opponent.

During the summer intense workouts including weight lifting, open gym, conditioning, and a summer league provided pertinent chemistry for this team. This year the team looks to its four captains, Senior Michelle Vicari and Juniors Kathleen Berthold, Carrie VanWay, and Kristin Scarnaty, for guidance and leadership.
The Hornets faced rivals Wayne Valley and West Milford. As a result of excellent offensive strategy and outstanding defense the Lady Hornets were able to defeat Wayne at both meetings. Also two confidence building wins for the team was against West Milford, a team which Passaic Valley has not beaten in approximately 10 years.

This 1998 team defeated Eastern Christian in their final game to give them their 11th win. Despite the loss of Vicari in the last five games due to illness, Berthold, Trovato, and VanWay provided overpowering offense to end victorious. Overall the team ended with a 9th place county seed and a final record of 11-11 to close out the season.

This year's Boys' and Girls' Track and Field Team is hoping to repeat the success of last year's team and is already on pace for a strong start. The Boys' Team were Conference Champs last year and are in competition to defend the title again this year. Led by third year Head Coach Angelo DeSalvo, both the boys and girls have a new additions and are primed for a successful season.

This year, the Boys' Team is led by Senior Captains Don Platvoet, Erin Lijoi, and Dave Murphy. Don runs 400m hurdles, the mile relay, and high jumps. Erin is one of the team's top pole vaulters and also runs the 800m. For a change of pace, Dave Murphy throws shot put and discus. Along with the Seniors, Juniors Andres Cordero, Eric Lightner, Josh Gregory, John Kaybita, Ryan Reddin, Sophomore Ryan Reddin, and Freshmen Lee Urgo, Alex Escobar, and Steve Rubestello will all have key roles in the team's success.

As for the girls, Senior Aisha Alexander is the top girls' distance runner, and her younger sister, Sophomore Desiree Alexander, leads the girls' weight team. Accompanying them, Junior Carrie VanWay and Freshman Sara Nowan lead a young, but competitive girls team this year. Led by Coach Callahan, the girls are poised for future success.

Although this year's Track and Field Team lost a lot to the 1997 graduation, the team will succeed if everyone contributes with their best effort. As the season continues, the team expects to be faster and stronger as a cohesive unit.
Fortunately for the Boys' Tennis team, the 1997 graduation did not take All-County Lubos Holy, Randy Sokalski, and Dave Botero. Returning to the courts this year, the boys' team is stronger than ever. The boys look to earn back the title of "One of the Most Feared Teams in Passaic County and Northern New Jersey". Headed by Coach Vu Phan, no stranger to PV tennis, and accompanied by Junior, Josh Walt-sack and strong underclassmen players, the team seeks to make this tennis season one to remember.
Man, this is really fun!

Dave and Randall J. learning the hard way.

Lubos with the full .... extension.

Keep your eye on the ball.

It's all in the form.

Every year the staff of the yearbook chooses a subject for the spotlight. The subject has ranged from the Drama Club, to winning sports records, and finally this year the spotlight is on the underclassmen of Passaic Valley. The underclassmen are a long forgotten part of the yearbook. The yearbook is often thought of as a book solely intended for the seniors, but this is not true. The underclassmen make up the greatest percentage of the school's population and greatly contribute to the activities, sports, and clubs that make up Passaic Valley.

The underclassmen are also a large part of the lives of the seniors whether it be in the role of a sibling, a teammate, or a friend. As seen in the spotlight section many seniors have younger siblings who even if they don't share the same interests share the common experiences of Passaic Valley. The underclassmen also comprise a good percentage of the clubs and sports at school. Underclassmen shine through on stage as well as on the field, loading boxes for clothing drives, hosting various programs on PVT, and musically, playing at concerts throughout the year as well as at graduation.

Overall, underclassmen have a huge impact on Passaic Valley and the seniors themselves, and whether freshmen, sophomores, or juniors, they have much to look forward to at Passaic Valley, and we wish them much luck.

Stacy Sanders

Stacy begins every morning by swapping social commentary with Tiffany.

"Hmm ... say what you will about this cafeteria, but I still think they're the best tator tots money can buy!"

Everyday after school, Stacy grubs a ride home from Kristina.

She comes home to her loving family ...

and her favorite dog and turtle.

Stacy relaxes every afternoon, and watches her GWC videos.

She likes to end her days with Ms. Mazzuca at a JSA debate.

He gets dressed and strolls downstairs to the lavatory where he makes himself look handsome.

Rob awakes early to take advantage of a beautiful day.

Killing some time before the big event later in the day, Rob takes part in his favorite pastime, playing with his wrestling dolls.

Vanished from all the hard work, Rob returns to his bedroom where he relaxes by playing "Grab Them Cakes" on his guitar.

Rob climbs into his chick magnet and drives down to the Nardone-a-Dome, sight of GWC Supercard Saturday.

"Rock Hard" works on the neck of his opponent.

Victorious in his match, "Rock Hard" sets his sights on GWC champion, The Great Gozleone.

Before bed time, Rob watches his favorite television program, Hulk Hogan's Rock 'n Wrestling.

Finally, Rob retires for the night, dreaming about his big title shot.

"Orange You Glad You Joined?" Well, most people are. One of the biggest parts of the high school experience is the extra-curricular involvement. There are a great many clubs and sports at Passaic Valley, and everyone can find an outlet for either their creativity, their athletic ability, or even their knack for helping others. From the Interact Club headed by Mr. Sileo to the Amnesty International Club led by Mrs. O'Malley, there is truly something for everyone.

However, the clubs at Passaic Valley are not only a benefit to those students involved, but to the entire community. These various organizations entertain, lead, inspire, and even lend a helping hand to those in need.

High school is intended to be a time when students realize who they are and the direction they would like their lives to take, and this would be impossible without the enrichment which is offered us through the guidance and support of fellow students and advisors through our clubs and activities. Passaic Valley has meant far more to us than simply academics, it is the peripherals, the extra involvements, that have made the high school experience what it is.
"Now don't tell anyone ..."

What's Black And White And Red All Over?

It's the job of the journalism class to produce Passaic Valley's newspaper, the Valley Echo. The class meets once a day to organize their stories, design the layout, and prepare their final product for distribution. As advisor, Mrs. Maria Pedalino works with the Valley Echo staff to improve their writing and interviewing skills, and most importantly, meet deadlines. This year, the paper is being produced entirely on computer thanks to Co-Editors-In-Chiefs Lauren DeFeo and Christine Pasquariello. The Valley Echo is proud to have won numerous awards from the Garden State Scholastic Press Association for photography, artwork, and feature writing.

The Ads Section of the yearbook is traditionally the section of the yearbook where local businesses as well as parents, family and friends wish the graduating class good luck, and send the seniors off with their warmest regards. Parents are asked to submit a letter to the yearbook staff called a “Letter from Home”, these letters express to the students their parents’ love as well as their aspirations for their child’s future. Students also submit “Boosters” which are one line “letters” sent to each other. These boosters serve as a reminder of personal jokes, memorable experiences, and encouragement for the future. Finally the Ads section also houses the ads from local businesses. Other than serving as an advertisement these merchants are contributing money to the senior class, and therefore helping to ensure that each senior will leave Passaic Valley with a yearbook as a constant reminder of their high school careers.

We would like to thank these local merchants as well as our parents, family, and friends for their unflagging support with both the successful completion of the 1998 yearbook, and their support and guidance over the past four years. This section of the yearbook will serve as the final commemoration of all they have done for us, and in turn a promise of all we hope to achieve as our way of saying thank you.
Jennifer Albert: You set a goal and reached it. In doing so, you made your parents very proud of you. The fashion world awaits your arrival.

Anna Arriga: Anni - congratulations, you made it! We all knew you were going to be great at your work. We all love you at M.S.U. - Irene and Zoila. Buddies for ever... (Juli) (Nino). Good luck in college and anywhere else - Edgar (Chino), Rita, Brian. Keep believing in your dreams! You have got Dios te bendiga-tu madre. With love, your family.

J.J. Atch: I.J.S., so very, very proud of you — not only of your efforts and achievements, but proud of the talented, determined and caring young man you are! Keep all that has brought you to this day close to your heart. Everyone and everything that came before you will remain a part of you always. Your father is smiling on you, your sisters are proud of you and I am blessed with you! We celebrate YOU; all you have accomplished and all you will achieve. May all your dreams be realized. God bless you. Love, Mom

Jeffrey Atry: We can't believe you are graduating High School — it seems like just yesterday you started kindergarten. You are a sincere and caring person. We thank God you are our son and we wish you a wonderful future filled with health, happiness and success. We will always be there for you in all your endeavors. Much love, Dad, Mom and Greg

Daniel Aulta: We are so proud of all your accomplishments. May life be good to you, Love, Mom and Dad

Tamaras Bacis: Congratulations on your many accomplishments - Green Chief, Cheering Captain, Student Council VP, two terms as FRGC Jr. Governor and many more. Remember to keep applying yourself to the best of your ability. You have made raising a "teenager" much easier than we ever imagined. We wish you much success and happiness in college and throughout your life. May you always remember what it is to be happy in life — family, faith and friends. Never forget that we are always here for you. (Tam Tam-thank you for allowing me to be a part of your high school experience — we've made my second coming to PV a blast!) Mom and Dad. Love You Sweetheart, Mom and Dad

Sarah Bahman: Dear Sarah, It has been eighteen years since you first entered our lives. And for every day of those eighteen years, you have used your special magic to bring joy and laughter to our hearts. It is now time for you to go and spread your magic on to the world. You have given the curiosity to explore this world and all of its wonders. the strength to accept the challenges that lay ahead of you, the courage to enter the tunnel of ignorance and emerge enlightened and the determination of your dreams despite the obstacles that lay before you. Indeed, these are very powerful tools that you have been given; but remember that as you go forward, you must always look back to us for the guidance and love that only a family can give. Love always, Mommy jun and Shiva

John Bakalian: We are very proud of you, and wish you all the best life has to offer - Love, Mom and Dad

John Baldino: Good Luck at college. Look under the bed for dirty clothes. Mom is not going to look for them. We love you. Mom, Dad, Filippo, and Michelle.

Joseph Ballard: Joseph ("Spank") we love you with all our heart. We are so very proud of you. We are here for you and we will always be there to help you to make all your dreams come true. Thank you for being a terrific son! Love, Mom and Dad Smoosh

Matthew Barber: Matthew, I've enjoyed watching you play in Marching Band and Concert Band and cheering for you at Band Competitions especially Giants Stadlum. You've been a true blue Band member. I can see a young man as an adult. You have always made me a very proud parent and I love you very much. I know you will look back on those last four years with many fond memories. I know that I will. I hope that the future will turn all your hopes and dreams into realities. Love always, Mom

Jackie Bergeron: Dear Jackie, The most rewarding day of our lives was the day you were born. Seeing you wheeled down the hallway in your explosion-proof cart is a day we will never forget and are eternally grateful for. Through the years you have been such a great watch. Your laughter and smile fill our hearts daily. Your wisdom and grace make us so proud. Your zest for life and your enthusiasm for all things is contagious. Our son and brother have been blessed with you to look up to. Remember to aim high, and know that your dreams and goals are not yet attained. Love always, Mom and Dad

Dave Bittman: Dave, Four years ago High School began - Wow, how you've grown! In so many ways!! (Not Just Height) We love you and couldn't be prouder of you. May you achieve everything in life you desire. Love, Mom, Dad, Laura, Steven and Maxx.

Tifanie Bocchini: Tifanie, May your future years bring you love, happiness and success. We are all proud of you. Love, Mom and Dad

Sebastian Boscario: To our son Sebastian, Congratulations, We are proud of you. We love you and we wish you the very best of luck. May your dreams always come true. Love, Mom and Dad

Dave Botero: The pride to have you as our son is only surpassed by our love for you. We'll always wish you the best. Papa, Mama, Alex

Dennis Bowie: Dennis, It's always been you and me against the world. Now against you will come face to face with the challenges of the world. Always remember, it's you and me against the world.

Kelli Brady: Kelli, Congratulations! May all of your dreams come true. My best wishes for you always. Love, Mom

Brian Britting: Brian, There hasn't been one day since August 11, 1980, that I haven't been proud of you. Your independence, your drive to want to achieve in the future will make your dreams come true. Go for it... The FBI needs a chief like you! Every look at you and see a fine young man. Borm Brit-Bri to Taz to Brian ... you will be a millionaire! Love always, Mom, Rob, Tim and "Bruce"

Mileena Caci: Jenny, my baby, the times have come to actually say that you're all grown up. We wish you the best of luck and success in whatever you do! Love, Mommy and Daddy

Frank Capalbo: Dear Frank, We love you so much and are very proud of the wonderful young adult you have become. With your many talents and personality, we know you will be a success in all you do. God bless you always. Love, Mom, Dad, and Rosi.

Nicole Capalbo: Dear Nicole (Munchkin), We love you very much and will always be very proud of you. Love Mommy and Daddy

Amy Cappello: It seems like only yesterday I used to call you my "peanut"; today you have grown into such a beautiful young lady. I am so very proud of you. May your life be filled with only good things. May you lose sight of all your dreams and know that I will always be there to watch over you, support and guide you. My love for you will always be unconditional; know that now and always. We have had some very rough times - don't ever look back. We have held it together this long as we will in the future. Believe in yourself; Love, Mom

Daniel J. Casanovas: Danny, you are our youngest, our baby. You have grown to be an independent young man. Through the years you have been remarkable to watch, something you do. Our wish for you is that you continue your education as a college student, pursue your dreams and always keep looking for a dream. The time is now. Never settle for second best, because you're the best. We love you and will always be there for you. Love always, Papa and Mimi

Daniela Cassanelli: Dear Daniela, We are very proud of you. We love you very much. We hope for you that your dreams will come true. Love, Mom and Dad

Tania Caver: You are the greatest gift that God gave us. It seems like yesterday that we saw our precious little girl in the house, filling our hearts with joy and happiness. Taking care of you and watching you grow has been a beautiful experience. May you live your life with others as you have for us. God gave us the opportunity to have a beautiful daughter that will always be in our hearts. Today, we are very happy to see you become a beautiful young girl and gradient to high school. We are happy to continue your college education and we pray to God to bless you and all your decisions you make in the future, which we will support you along the way. We will always be there for you. Congratulations for your Graduation! With love, Mom and Dad

Sergio Cirillo: To our dear son Sergio. We wish you the best that life can bring. May your future be full of happiness and success. Love, Mom and Dad

Danielle Clemente: To Our Granddaughter, Danielle Marie Clemente, We are so proud of you. Always go in the right direction, and always remember how much we love you. Good Luck! Love, Grandmom and Granddad

Marla Comperatore: We want you to know how very proud we are of all your accomplishments but also for the truly wonderful woman you're evolving into. We have great confidence in you and we know there will be many more accomplishments in your future. Good Luck. We love you deeply. Mom, Dad, Candassa, and Marissa

Nicole Cosman: Since the day you were born, you've been such a source of pleasure to us. You've brought so much joy to our lives! The years have flown by too quickly. We've watched you grow from an energetic little girl to the lovely young woman that you are today. Your great sense of humor has touched many lives and your hard work and dedication have made you a winner. We've enjoyed your high school years tremendously. We're proud of all your accomplishments, and of all the wonderful friends you've made in college. We may not see as much of your future in your hands. Just remember - We love you so much and will be here cheering you on! Love always, Mom and Dad

Erin Coughlin: Congratulations to our little girl. We are so proud of you. Be happy - and always remember we are here for you. Love, Mom and Dad

Stephanie Cryan: Steph, We want you to thank for all the joy you've brought into our lives. We are very proud of the person you've become. We know you've worked very hard, now enjoy this moment. Congratulations! We love you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Matt

Joseph Czalosz: Where have the past 18 years gone? Frankly speaking to you, I knew you were a special gift sent from up above. Times may have not always been easy, but we've made it through. Underneath it all, I know how kind, loving, and thoughtful you are. I see these qualities in you more and more as you grow older. As you travel down the road of life, remember, if you ever feel lost or confused, I will always be there to pick you up and set you down the right path. You have my unconditional love and support. Reach for the stars and you will succeed in whatever you attempt to do. Love, Mom

Robert Czyzewski: Dear Rob: It's hard to believe that you're all grown up and about to embark on a life hopefully filled with successes, rights and choices for good health. You know we are behind you 100% in anything you may decide to do. We love you very much. Love, Mom and Tony

Dean D'Aiuto: Good luck in college and also the years to come. We are very proud of you and know you will be a success. Love, Mom, Dad, Scott, Jenna, and Jason

Melissa DeCato: Dear Melissa - You have accomplished a great deal. Go forward to your dreams. Love and Happiness to you always - Love, Your Family

Lauren DeFeo: To our wonderful daughter, It's hard to believe the years went by so fast! It seems like only yesterday you were starting kindergarten with a joy from the beginning. We have been and I'm sure will always be very proud of you. We wish for you the very best. The years to come are filled with many good things. We love you, and will always love you.

Steven de Stefano: Congratulations. Your hard work ethic will help you achieve your dreams. Love, Mom and Dad

Keith De Young: Keith, we are very proud of you and wish you the best in the future. Love, Mom and Dad

Joey Di Benedetto: Dear Joey, We wish the best in your life and may all of your dreams come true. Love, Mom and Dad.

Sandra DiLizia: Sandra, No one can believe that the baby of the family is graduating! You’ve grown into a beautiful young lady, but we are so proud of you. We don’t have to wish you luck because we know you will do well in everything that you do. So, remember that we’ll always be here for you, we’ll always stand behind you, and most importantly, we’ll always love you! Congratulations and God Bless You! Love, Mommy, Daddy, and Valentina.

DiLuccia: As I sit down to write this, it is your 18th birthday. It’s been one year since you walked into the world. Though these memories will hold in our hearts forever. No matter how trying some of these times were (especially the last 4 years), along with it comes a joy that cannot be measured. I would not change any one of these memories simply because it is you... We wish you happiness and a success that only you can measure. Always know that we will always be here for you no matter what. Love, Mom, Dad, Chris, and Ali.

Stefanie DiTondo: Stefanie, You are the sunshine in our life. Your smile and wit makes every day an adventure. Though you have grown to be a beautiful young lady, my arms will always be there to hug you and Daddy’s lap will always be waiting for you to sit. Because in our eyes you will always be our little girl. So when you travel through life’s great adventures your unique way of looking at things will never change. We love you, Mom and Dad.

Donald C. Donadio III: Reach for the stars and always believe in yourself. You have been and always will be our special girl. We special to us. We have been blessed with a truly wonderful son like you. You have filled our lives with so much love and happiness. How precious these past eighteen years have been watching you grow into a fine mature young man filled with character, independence, and a truthful spirit. You are a sensitive, caring person and that is part of your charm. Always believe in yourself, and you will overcome all obstacles. As you continue to grow as a person, remember your parents always support you no matter what. May success and happiness be generous to you and may whatever you do be strong. Love, Mom, Dad, Dot, Sue, Jen and Dawn.

Jack Donnarruma: Jack, Congratulations! You’ve made it and we are all proud of you! You are very special to us and you deserve the best. We wish you a lifetime of success. Elisa Fonetti: Elisa, You are our "shining light". Be happy with your dreams and know how proud we are of you. You have matured into a loving, caring and adorable young woman. We wish you happiness, love, good health, and prosperity. May all your dreams and wishes come true.

Korinne Fugate: Congratulations Sweetie: You cannot imagine the joy which you have brought to our family. You must be a very special person, when your own sister adds to her collection of "special princess". We love you, Dad, Mom and Marc.

A strong beautiful young woman, you have always been a great source of inspiration, affection, pleasure, pride and joy. We know there is no limit to what you can accomplish your intelligence and good wish will take you far. Follow your dreams, Tina, and have fun reaching them. We will always be there to give you our love and support. May God Bless you and every step you take. We love you very much!! XOXO CIAO! Love, Mom, and Dad.

Dana Jenkins: Dear Dana, All our hopes and dreams are with you as you start the next phase of your life. We’ll always be very proud of you. Your Family

Jennifer Johnson: To Our Daughter “J”, It seems like only yesterday we were taking you to school for the first time. These years went by too fast. Our only wish to you is for happiness and success in all you do. You have all of our love already. Hugs and kisses, Mom and Dad.

Casey Kubana: Casey, We’re very proud of you. As you go to college and learn about your blessings and wishes for success. You have a very special gift, use it with your fullest potential. We love you! Mom, Dad, and Cory.

Maya Karam: We are so proud of all that you’ve become. We have no doubt in our minds that you will excel as you strive to better yourself. As you move forward in your journey, always remember that the ambition you have. Your bubbly and full-spirited personality will take you far and always know that we are right behind you. We love you, always, Mom, Dad, and Kamal.

Carla Kinney: Carla, As you plan for your future, we want you to know how proud we are of you. You have grown up to become a beautiful young lady. We wish you success and happiness in all you do.

Kimberly Komar: To Our "Kimmy." (Komar), It only seems like yesterday that you began your journey through school because you didn’t want to go! (First Grade too!!). Now, you are a beautiful young lady anxiously waiting to graduate. We are so proud of you. "Kimmy," but you’ll always be our "Kimmy." We love you. May God bless you always. Love, Mom and Dad.

Keith Koster: To My Grandson, I want you to how very proud I am of you at this special time in your life. Your High School Graduation. As I reflect back on your life so far, I see how you have grown into a fine young man with a wonderful sense of humor, thoughtful of others and sometimes a little headstrong but unique in your own special way. In life if I were granted only one wish I would wish you the best in life, a healthy, happy and successful future. Love always, Gram

Keith Koster: It seems like only yesterday that you started on the road to kindergarten. But now you have traveled down the final road of your senior year. As you begin a new journey in your long walk of life, always remember that if you should ever stumble in your goal to achieve success, we’ll always be there for you. We have no "Fear" that you will achieve whatever you set out to do. May you continue to grow into the fine respectable young man you have started to become. We are very proud to have you as our "Son." Love, Mom and George.

Corey Kuiper: Corey, 525,600 minutes X 4. For you and your friends, they have been the first steps on an adventure called life. So dream your life, and live your dreams. There is a big and exciting world out there - be afraid to challenge yourself. You are an amazing young man. We are proud of you son. Good Luck - All our love, Forever - Mom and Dad.

Matt Leines: From a shy little boy into a confident and responsible young man ... where has the time gone? It’s difficult to find the right words to express how proud I am of your accomplishments. As a young boy, it was evident that God gave you a special gift. From the time that you were old enough to hold a crayon, you were already very well advanced, as you developed this gift into a talent. You have a bright future ahead of you Matt, just believe in yourself! Have confidence - we’re behind you. We love you and will always be there to give you our love and support. Thank you for making the responsibility of being a parent so easy. Love, Mom.

Keith Liscio: Dear Keith, We love you and wish you the best of luck and happiness. We want you to be happy and proud of all your dreams come true. Love, Mom, Dad, Frankie, and Brian

Rachel Lofores: From the moment you were born, we knew you were going to be a special child. How special, we didn’t know! The first 10 days of your life when we couldn’t hold you or feed you, we thought you would never bond with us. How wrong we were! Through 14 years of dancing and 9 years of cheerleading, we have always watched you with pride. You have the brains, talent, and personality to achieve anything you want. These are gifts from God. Use them wisely, Rachel, you don’t need a crown to be the perfect teen - you are our perfect teen! You have grown to be a beautiful, talented, and very independent young lady. You have proved to us for 17 years that you are a special child, a wonderful person. We are proud of you. We hope that what we taught you will help you and guide you for a happy and healthy life as an adult. We love you. - Mom and Dad

Aimee SPLITPOLOUS: Aimee, Your first steps have led you down the right path in life. Hold your head up and follow your dreams. Be at your best at all times. Love you very much and are proud you're our daughter. Mom and Baba

Daniel Start and The Class of '98: The following are quotes from a humorous article entitled "Welcome to Adulthood: written by David Chartrand (who indicated it was the text of a commencement speech he planned to deliver just as soon as some high school students invite him to be its commencement speaker). (It appeared on page 101 of The Wall Street Journal on May 21, 1993.)" "Never again will anyone remind you to do your homework on a Sunday night. You can party all weekend. It's your life. Waste it only if you dare. You are about to jump into the deep end of the pool of life, to sink or swim on your own." "Campus life will not so much build your character as reveal it. Brace yourself now for the relativism you will find on campus. Watch out for religious creeds that prey on college freshmen. There's no harm sharing your beliefs with them, but be very cautious when they demand your mind and your possessions, it's time to wise up and walk away." "If you must choose between what Mom and Dad told you is right and wrong and what your philosophy professor tells you, my money is with Mom and Dad. They have a bigger investment in you." "One last thing: Be not surprised by the tears streaming down your parents' faces... They are not sad. They weep because they are having an hallucinogenic experience. All they know is yesterday you were little frogs and snails and puppy dogs' tails. They have no earthly idea when you turned into this cocky young adult. It is a surreal, mind-altering experience that will be much clearer to you when your own kids leave for college." "You, too, will cry now and then as you realize how much your family means to you and how well they prepared you for this moment. Remember always who you are. You are standing up for what you have become." Marion Douma Start, P.V.H.S. Alumna

Heather Tenczka: Heather, Your four years of High School are finally at an end and your years of college lay before you. Be confident in yourself and set your goals as high as your dreams. You can go anywhere you want with some hard work and the belief that you can. Remember always what's right and wrong, because the easy way is not always the right way. Take pride in yourself and all you do, because I am proud of you and know what you're able to achieve. I'll love you always and support you through it all. I'll always be there to listen when you need to talk. Hoping your book is a best seller - Love always, Mom

Frank Thoma: Frank, Now that this part of your life is over, you can see how fast things come and go. Make the most of your education, and never stop learning. Never settle for second best. Always try to be #1 in what you do, Love, Mom, and Dad

Michael Victor Thomas: With all my love and Your Mom's Love, Dad

Vanessa Thompson: Wishing you the best, in whatever you choose to do in the future. You're the best. Love you, Mom and Dad

Loretta Trezza: We are so proud of you and we love you very much. Wishing you luck and happiness in the future. May all your dreams come true. You are very special to us. Remember, we are always here for you. Love, Mom, and Dad, Tony and Danny

Ryan Urgo: Dear Ryan, You have always made us proud. Believe in yourself, the way we have always believed in you. We Love You, Mom and Dad

Michelle Vicari: We are very proud of you! Michelle - You are everything parents want in a daughter. You are a warm, sensitive and caring young woman. You have strong convictions - academically and ethically. Continue to be true to yourself and your goals. We love you with all our hearts. Love, Mom, Dad, and Christine

Mike Viterito: Through the good and the bad. my love for you will never change. I only want the best for you. With hard work, you will only succeed. May all your dreams come true. I also want you to remember your father will be with you always. Love Mom

Brandy Westergard: Brandy, We watched you grow from an infant into a very beautiful and caring young adult. We want to let you know how very proud we are of you. Good Luck to you in whatever the future holds and stay the caring person you are. We wish the best of everything for you. With all our Love, Forever, Mom and Dad

Gene Wussulius: Gene, Congratulations! These past four years went too fast. We are so proud of you and all your efforts. Your graphic designs, computer expertise and writing talents have developed into excellent skills. Your quiet, sensitive ways yet great sense of humor are an inspiration to your family. We love you and wish you happiness and success in college! Love, Mom, Don, and Jackie

Gina Ziegler: Dear Gina, You have always made us very proud of all your accomplishments. You have a heart of gold and are always ready to help anyone. In the future, I hope your future out into the world, no matter what path you choose, always know that our love will be with you forever and ever. Love, Mom and Dad

Merideth Ziem: Your smile, love and laughter are what brighten my days. I am thankful and proud that you are my daughter. I hope every dream in your heart comes true and that you find close friends and love to last a lifetime.
Dear Greens, Thank you for Good Luck.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

"Hey, Hey, We're The Monkees!"

Tania: Well, we're still friends, after 3 yrs. We were always there for each other. We have a lot of great memories together!!

Love Ya, Jen

Dana: We have a lot of great memories together throughout the 3 yrs. We always had a fun time. Remember your sleepovers?

Love Ya, Jen

Guys, the years we spent together have been fun! We have gone through a lot together. I am really glad that I met and became friends with all of you!!

Love, Tania

You all have a place in my heart! The memories we made will last a lifetime!

Even more than that, I am happy to know that I am as important to you as you are to me!!

Love, Dana

MARIA

It is hard to believe how far you've come, from the cute little girl of yesteryear to the beautiful and talented young lady of today. All the unforgettable moments have passed by so quickly but all of the memories still do remain. We hope that, as you commence your promising future, you remember the good times fondly. We will never forget when we had you all to our selves. When you were a little twinkle in our eyes. But we see now that you have grown into a mature and successful woman. We know that you will be happy and successful. Remember the only limitations you will face are those you create for yourself. And also believe nothing of what you hear and only half of what you see. Be dependent and self sufficient but, at the same time, caring and giving. We love you more than words can say and we will always be there for you without selfish motives, but also in the best and worst of times.

Love Mom, Dad, &
Kathy

MICHELLE,

Thank you for being there whenever I needed you. You directed me on the path. Your advice was always right and you knew what I was going through and had the right thing to say.

FOREVER FRIENDS

YESTERDAY

When boys meant "quack" and friends were new Dreams weren't important and worries few,
When teens was too short and life too long,
Decisions came easy with out the need to belong,
When bad things didn't happen, when only skinned knees brought tears.

And the light on stopped all our fears.
When farewell meant just for the summer
Real friends didn't part, the fun went on forever and never left a broken heart.

200/Ads
Would you give up countless hours per week to spend on end walking up and down a football field while spinning a 2 pound piece of wood, beating a drum, handling a 5 1/2 foot pole with a piece of cloth on it, playing a trumpet or saxophone, twirling a 40-inch piece of metal with rubber tips on the end, or playing the flute?

Would you give up free time so someone could whistle and yell "AGAIN", "TIMING", "THIS IS OCTOBER PEOPLE, NOT JUNE", "WE PLAY TILL 9:00 BY MY WATCH", and other such endearing statements?

Would you give up your weekends when other teenagers are out on dates so you could work your heart out in front of a stadium full of spectators?

Would you spend endless hours on a bumpy bus so you could have the privilege of spending your money on shack food?

Would you march until you had blisters on your feet, when you were sick, when every muscle in your body ached?

Would you consider trying again when you just suffered a stinging defeat, your heart felt ready to break and tears were streaming down your face?

Would you push a little harder when your body screams "STOP", but the prayer in your mind is "LET ME DO BETTER THAN I DID LAST TIME"?

Would you or could you?

IT TAKES A SPECIAL PERSON!

THIS IS HOW WE DO IT!!
Dear Jenn A.,
Jay R., John G.,
and Nick G.,
You guys are the best! I'm going to miss
you all terribly.
I love you guys

Love always,
Katie

I never really felt it, I never really knew,
I never understood it, until my heart loved you.

I thought it didn't matter, I thought I ceased to be,
I thought I had to settle, to be something less than me.

I dreamed of different lives, of different times and places,
I dreamed of true love, it had a thousand different faces.

I can't believe the freedom, I can't believe it's true,
I can't believe my fortune, since I fell in love with you

Anthony,
I love you more than ever. I hope we last for eternity!
I can't put it into words the love I have for you.
Thank-you for ALL that you have done for me.
I LOVE YOU!
